

Time

David Livingston © 1968

Endless fairytales, worlds that fly away
Do you really know what's on your mind?
As you take a look deep inside yourself
Can you face-up to the soul you find?
At the center of life's enormity
Have you found the only thing that's real is... .. time

Is there time to do the things that really matter to you?
Do you think that it's important that you may not see tomorrow?
Think about it for a minute, let the concept get inside you
It'll really blow your mind out, if you take the...time

Is there time
Time to laugh ?
Is there time
Time to play ?
Is there time ..
Time to find the time you threw away?

Is there time to do the things that really matter to you?
Do you think that it's important that you may not see tomorrow?
Think about it for a minute, let the concept get inside you
That you may not see tomorrow, think about it for a minute

Is there anything that's real?
Anything to find?
What will happen, can you make it rhyme?
Are you searching yet?
Do you really care?
Does it really matter if there isn't time?

It will really blow your mind out, let the concept get inside you
Think about it for a minute, that you may not see tomorrow
Do you think that it's important, does it really matter to you?
If you take the time to realize that really isn't ...
